ABOUT THE LOUNGE

Originally a bridal shop, The Music Hall (a 501c3 organization) purchased and opened The Loft on 131 Congress St. in 2011 as a black box theater. Located just a block from The Historic Theater, The Loft welcomed musicians, artists, and film to its stage for over a decade. From 2020-2022 when the arts industry was significantly affected by the pandemic, The Loft was briefly shuttered. During this time, The Music Hall strategically repositioned this space into what is now – The Lounge – an open-concept, nightclub vibe with flexible seating options. The revitalized space hosts high-quality programming from around the corner and around the world, including musicians, comedians, authors, and select film programming.

We hope you enjoy your experience here with us at The Lounge, and tell your friends about it! You can visit our website, themusichall.org, for more information regarding upcoming events and performances.

With gratitude to these families who were instrumental in adding this space on 131 Congress Street to the Music Hall campus in 2011:

The Shaines Family
The Fishbein Family
The Hemingway Family
An Exeter Family
